

supports available through Victims Services programs.

2:00 – 2:15 – The Salvation Army, Correctional and Justice Services

Presenter: Stephen Moorgen, Coordinator, Modern Slavery Human Trafficking

The aim and scope of the project is to provide wrap around services that contribute to the holistic healing and restoration of those that have exited trafficking. Fully acknowledging that gaps do exist within service/service providers, we seek to mitigate those identified gaps through unique and cross collaborative partnerships.

2:15 – 2:30 – Industry Training – Accommodation

Presenter: Det. Cst. Chris Martin, Saskatoon Police Service

The hospitality industry is highly vulnerable to human traffickers especially when it comes to child sexual exploitation, forced prostitution and forced criminality. Discover why hotels are vulnerable to human trafficking and how to identify the critical intervention points within hotels where signs of trafficking can be spotted, and preventative measures can be put in place.

2:30 – 2:45 – Break

2:45 – 3:15 – Human Trafficking Training for Law Enforcement

Presenter: Sgt. Casey Ward, Regina Police Service

This session explores the world of human trafficking and the legislation implications for law enforcement and victims of sexual exploitation and forced labour. You will learn about the current human trafficking environment; gain knowledge of the various applicable human trafficking laws and understand the differences in human trafficking investigations and the gathering of pertinent information for successful convictions.

3:15 – 3:45 – Panel Discussion

This discussion will focus on tangible solutions and collaborative efforts. Attendees will have the opportunity to interact with panelists, ask questions, and participate in a dynamic exchange of ideas.

3:45 – 4:00 – Closing Remarks

4:00 – 5:00 – Networking Session

Join us for a post-summit networking session where attendees will have a chance to mingle, exchange ideas and build valuable connections with fellow participants.

Hospitality Saskatchewan's HUMAN TRAFFICKING SUMMIT 2023

Thank you to our Sponsors

Without their invaluable support this summit would not be possible!

CANALTA
HOTELS

Hospitality Saskatchewan's Human Trafficking Summit 2023

Wednesday November 8 – Travelodge Hotel by Wyndham Saskatoon – 106 Circle Dr.

10:00 – 10:30 - Opening Remarks, Jim Bence Hospitality Saskatchewan President & CEO

10:30 – 11:00 - A Story of Resilience and Hope

Presenter: Beatrice Wallace
- Wolfe, Family & Youth Worker, Indigenous Christian Fellowship

She is the author of Wolf Woman: A Search for Identity. The inspiring true story of her journey from brokenness to healing. At once heartbreaking and hope-filled, vulnerable, and tenacious, Wolfe's story shows the resiliency of the human spirit and the power of healing to create real-life change.

11:00 – 11:30 - Understanding the Root Causes of Human Trafficking

Presenter: Julia Drydyk, Executive Dir., Canadian Centre To End Human Trafficking

The Canadian Centre to End Human Trafficking has been established as the national “backbone” organization working on this issue.

The Centre collaborates and works with the various stakeholders dedicated to this issue, including survivor leaders, all levels of government, private sector businesses and front-line service providers to advance best practices and eliminate duplicate efforts across Canada.

11:30 – 12:00 –
Saskatchewan Perspective
- Human Trafficking

Presenters: RCMP S/Sgt.
Jeff Smoliak, Saskatchewan
Enforcement Response Teams (SERT) & CM Jeff Andersen, SERT Analytical Manager

The Sask. Trafficking Response Team (STRT) are mandated to conduct law enforcement and intelligence activities with the objective of stopping or disrupting inter and intra-provincial criminal groups engaged in the trafficking of humans, firearms, and controlled substances.

12:00 – 12:30 Lunch

12:30 – 1:00 - Support Changes Everything

Presenter: Joeline Magil, Executive Director/Founding
Director Hope Restored
Canada

Hope Restored sees firsthand the devastating impacts of sex trafficking and sexual exploitation has on people in our community, and as the only agency of its kind in the province Joeline will be offering a short session on understanding who they are, and what is needed in the context of this work in our province.

1:00 – 1:30 – Human Trafficking, an Indigenous,
First Nation & Metis Perspective

Presenter: Sandy Smokyday, Supportive Living Homes
Support Worker/Liaison

In this session Sandy will shed light on the unique challenges faced by indigenous communities, offering valuable insights on their experience with human trafficking and foster important conversations aimed at raising awareness and driving meaningful change.

1:30 – 2:00 –
Saskatchewan. Legislation & Provincial Supports for Victims and Survivors

Presenter: Katelyn Putland, Government of Saskatchewan, Interpersonal Violence Specialist, Victims Services, Community Safety and Well-Being, Integrated Justice Services

In 2022, The Protection from Human Trafficking Act came into force in Saskatchewan providing further safeguards for victims and survivors of human trafficking. This presentation will provide insight into the provisions of the legislation and highlight the province-wide services and