Supporting Saskatchewan's Tourism and Hospitality Industry

"Hospitality Saskatchewan has been very supportive. They helped us to set up insurance, property tax issues, and sending information.

The staff is very helpful. Anytime you have a question or dealing with a problem, they are always giving a helping hand."

Moon Chung / Armada Hotel / Unity

 Publish amendments to The Employment Standards Regulations: which revised the government's approach to temporary layoffs, group termination notices and public health emergency leave.

- Announce temporary commercial eviction protection: for small business tenants during the COVID-19 emergency.
- · Wage Subsidy: extension.

OUR COLLECTIVE STRENGTH

There is strength in numbers. We are a group of likeminded individuals who are willing to support new members and advocate on one another's behalf. We represent your interests to the provincial government and other hospitality stakeholders. We work tirelessly on your behalf to ensure that Hospitality Saskatchewan is a benefit to you, your business, and the overall industry. Here are some of our recent successes:

- VLT Commission Increase: the commission paid to VLT site contractors increased from 15 per cent to 18 per cent.
- Cap on Food Delivery Fees: Saskatchewan capped fees charged by third-party food delivery companies at 18 per cent of the pre-tax order until August 31 to help restaurants struggling due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Saskatchewan Tourism Sector Support Program (STSSP): $35 million in funding was available to provide payments to support tourism businesses that had been significantly affected by the pandemic. (The STSSP was the first program of its kind to have been introduced by any provincial government in the country)
- Emergency Support Program for Saskatchewan Small Businesses (SSBEP): providing a grant for small and mediumsized enterprises directly affected by government public health orders.
- The Strong Recovery Adaptation Rebate (SRAR): is available to businesses that have had to adapt their business models during the pandemic.
